FEBRUARY MISSION & SERVICE PROJECT

We are creating hand-made Valentines again this year for those in care facilities in our community! It was such a well-received and appreciated kindness. Our "Valentine's Box" is available the first week of February to collect your hand-made cards to share God's love with others.

We will be collecting home-made Valentine's Day cards through February 8th. (See collection box in the Commons) We will be delivering again to Immanuel Fontenelle on as the residents truly enjoy being remembered in this special way. Thank you SO much for helping out!

Have you been attending Sunday worship and other church activities for a while now? We would love to invite you to experience the joy of belonging to our faith community through church membership. Pastor Alex will be hosting a membership class in the near future. Our membership class gives folks the opportunity to learn more about our church, what we believe, meet new people, and find ways to get connected. Even if you decide not to join, it will still be time well spent in fellowship. Please reach out to Pastor Alex if you are considering exploring this possibility.

POP TABS: Our pop tab collection was so successful that we've decided to make this a year-round project! Now you can bring your pop tabs to church at your convenience so they don't accumulate in a pile at your home! Look for the big jar in the Commons. Thank you for your participation with our community partners – Ronald McDonald House and the Shriners!

Our church family will continue to collect non-perishable food donations for the Holy Cross Church Food Pantry. Our faithful contributions are blessing those in need who experience food insecurity in our immediate neighborhoods and community. Your selfless acts of sharing food with our neighbors makes a lasting impact in ways we may never know on this side of heaven. The bin for collections is located in the Commons for this year-round support. Thank you for your generosity!

REMINDER: we are collecting "white elephants" throughout the year for our October sale! No clothes** or broken items, please. There is a large green bin in the Board Room (down the hall across from the main church office) for your items. Thank you for your contributions!

CLOTHES** are being collected year-round for the Open Door Mission. New or clean, gently-used clothing can be deposited in the specially-marked bin in the Commons. Thank you for your kindness!

CRAFTERS! After a break during January, we are starting up again this month! All are welcome. Come anytime between 1-3 PM, Rm. 128. Questions? Contact Leigh Powell.

ALL LADIES GROUPS/CIRCLES continue to take a break during the month of February. See you all in March!

MEN'S MINISTRY BREAKFAST: We are starting up early and will resume on Saturday, Feb. 7th at 9:00 AM in the Commons. It is a BYOB: "Bring Your Own Breakfast." All men of the church are invited for this great time of fellowship!

FROM PASTOR ALEX WOLF

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The American Heart Association designates February as "Heart Month." I imagine this is done partly to remind us of our physical hearts' health while we share our hearts of love on Valentine's Day. In this way, you could say that February is all about having a "right and loving heart."

Throughout Scripture, the heart is seen as our inner self, our control center, the source of every thought, passion, and decision we have and make. "Everything you do flows from [your heart]" (Proverbs 4:23). "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:21). "For the Lord sees not as a man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart" (1 Samuel 16:7).

So, how is your heart? Of course, keeping your physical heart healthy is important. It's good to eat a balanced diet, exercise, watch your blood pressure and cholesterol, and get enough sleep.

But what about your spiritual heart? Jesus said that the greatest commandment is to "love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength" (Mark 12:30). Are you deepening your relationship with God, relying on Christ's grace, and looking for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in your life? Or do you need to refill your heart with love towards God?

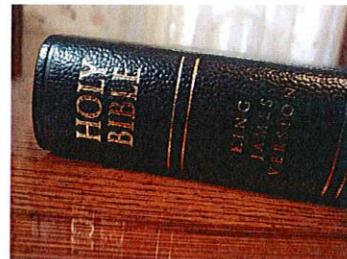

Jesus said the second greatest commandment is, "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:31). How is your heart towards others? Do you see friends, family, church family, even strangers as people to love and serve in Christ's name? Or do you need God to soften your heart and fill it with compassion?

I am proud to see how so many of you are keeping your spiritual heart strong by attending worship, faithfully reading your Bible and praying daily, participating in fellowship activities, collecting food and clothing for those in need, and being there for those who need support.

In February and beyond, let's keep our physical and spiritual hearts healthy!

In Christ's Love,

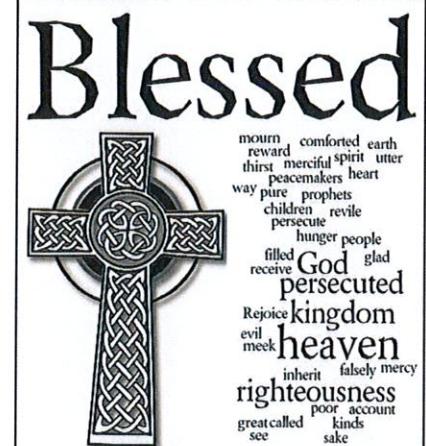

Pastor Alex

From our Northwest Hills Preschool...

Our little school is coasting along! The transition back to school after the long Christmas break was very smooth, thankfully! January was spent doing all sorts of winter themed science experiments and learning all about the Arctic and Antarctica....it is even colder there than here! BRRRRR! We have all sorts of fun Valentine-themed activities planned for February, including a party! Our verse for February is "God is love." 1 John 4:16. Although short, it is indeed a very important message for these young children. Please pray that we can continue to show God's love to these children that have been entrusted to our care!

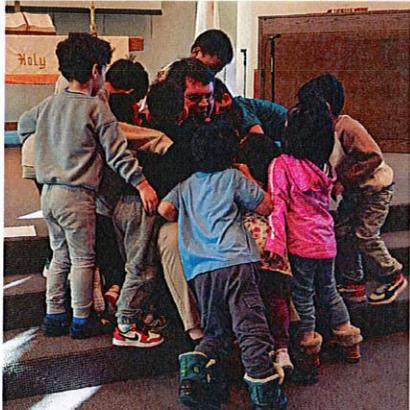

Happy Valentine's Day from the preschool crew!

— Jacque, Lori, and Robin

Every other Wednesday the preschoolers have "chapel" with Pastor Alex.

And of course there is always a big "group hug!"

We had our own indoor snow! We made snow angels on the floor and didn't even get wet!

Every play activity is an opportunity to learn our numbers, letters, shapes and colors!

BAD WEATHER

Should very severe weather (dangerous travel and/or frigid temperatures) cause Northwest Hills to cancel a Sunday service, there will be three sources used to communicate a closure to you by 8:00 AM that morning: 1) The three major local television channels (WOWT NBC-6, KMTV-CBS-3, and KETV ABC-7) will have a continually updating scroll of closures at the bottom of the screen. Look for Northwest Hills under "church closures" 2) Facebook post and 3) Email.

Although we would love to see you and fellowship with you at church, please always choose caution and personal safety regarding attendance, even if services are NOT cancelled. If there is a concern regarding walking and driving in the white stuff and frozen patches, we'd rather you be safe and snuggled up at home rather than taking a chance of a fall or accident. We love you and care about you!

Just a few funnies to make you smile.....

"I don't believe that Noah took a pair of every kind of animal into the Ark. I don't believe Noah could round up all the animals in one herd without the skunk causing a stampede."

"Three friends — a surgeon, an engineer, and a politician — were discussing which of their professions was the oldest. The surgeon said: "Eve was created from Adam's rib—a surgical procedure." The engineer replied: "Before Adam and Eve were created, order was created out of chaos, and that was an engineering job." The politician said: "Yes, but who do you suppose created the chaos?"

"It's important for your health to have an attitude of gratitude. When you get up in the morning, do you say, 'Good Lord, morning!?' Or do you say, 'Good morning, Lord!?'

THANKSGIVING ONE-LINERS...

"Just be thankful you're not getting all the government you're paying for." —Will Rogers

"I remember an elderly lady testifying that she had only two teeth left in her mouth (top and bottom) and she was 'rejoicing' because 'they hit.'" —Sherwood Eliot Wirt

"Joy is really the simplest form of gratitude." —Karl Barth

A cute little true story just to make you smile.....

"The happiest Methodists in Tulsa" (so says the church's slogan) go to Will Rogers United Methodist Church.

Yes, there is a Will Rogers United Methodist Church, named after the great American humorist. And FMC member Larry Jacobson, also a humorist, is the pastor.

The church recently celebrated its jubilee (50th) year.

As might be expected, Will Rogers church members have a lot of fun. "We do laugh a lot," says Rev. Jacobson.

Commenting on Roger's famous remark, "I never met a man I didn't like," associate pastor Terry Ewing suggested the church's slogan ought to be: "We are the folks Will Rogers never met." Jacobson likes to play satiric little games with his congregation. He recently printed and passed out to the congregation the following list of new books he recommended in the church library:

Perfection and How I Attained It by Rev. L. Jacobson
Join the Crowd: How to Have a Dysfunctional Family
Tithing from Credit Cards
Road to Abundant Life — Jonah's Seaweed Diet
Learn the Bible While You Sleep
Self-Counseling and How to Perform Surgery at Home
Walking by Faith: Climbing Stairs in Bifocals
Building Self-Esteem When You Don't Deserve It
Raising Great Kids on Five Minutes a Day
Learn to Teach Sunday School Without Preparation
Winning Souls Without Getting Involved with People
How to Forgive Without Anyone Knowing It
Gossip in the Spirit

WILL ROGERS (1879-1935)

Who Was Will Rogers? After performing in Wild West shows as a young man, Will Rogers broke into vaudeville and then Broadway. His folksy wit and common sense attitude made him one of the most famous actors and authors in the world in the 1920s and '30s.

Early Life Rogers was born on November 4, 1879, in present-day Oologah, Oklahoma — then part of Indian territory. Rogers grew up in a ranching family. Himself part Cherokee, Rogers socialized with both Indigenous peoples and Anglo-American settlers in the immediate area. He left Oklahoma as a teenager, eventually finding work in the traveling Wild West shows popular at the time.

Career In 1905, Rogers began performing a lasso act on the vaudeville circuit. His charm and humor, along with his technical ability, made Rogers a star. Audiences responded with enthusiasm to his off-the-cuff remarks delivered while performing elaborate roping tricks. Rogers parlayed his vaudeville success into a Broadway career. He debuted in New York in 1916, performing in The Wall Street Girl. This led to many more theatrical roles, including headlining appearances in the Ziegfeld Follies. Rogers also brought his act to the burgeoning medium of the moving picture. He appeared in dozens of silent films, often playing a country bumpkin trying to negotiate the modern world. In addition to acting, Rogers became nationally-known as a writer. He penned a column for the Saturday Evening Post that ran in newspapers across the country. His columns dealt with contemporary issues from a perspective of small-town morality, emphasizing the integrity of working people. It was a viewpoint that resonated in the rapidly industrializing twentieth-century United States. Many of his books, including The Cowboy Philosopher on Prohibition and There's Not a Bathing Suit in Russia, achieved best-seller status. Rogers's fame had eclipsed his country bumpkin persona by 1930. No longer believable as an uneducated outsider, he was able to voice his characteristic wit and wisdom while playing a professional. Legendary director John Ford worked with Rogers on three of these later films—Doctor Bull, Judge Priest and The Steamboat Round the Bend. After filming concluded on the final Ford film, in 1935, Rogers set out on a trip to Alaska. An avid aviation enthusiast, he planned to explore remote stretches by plane as well as on foot.

Death On August 15, 1935, the plane carrying Rogers crashed in Point Barrow, Alaska. He died on impact. Millions across the country mourned the sudden silencing of a quintessentially American voice.

In 1991, a Broadway show based on Rogers brought renewed attention to his life and humor. The Will Rogers Follies, starring Keith Carradine, focused on Rogers's performances as a headliner of the Ziegfeld Follies. The show won several Tony Awards, including for best musical, best musical score and best direction.
